ABOUT RGAQ

The Regional Galleries Association of Queensland (RGAQ) is the peak membership body for Queensland's public gallery network.

RGAQ actively engages in advocacy and marketing for the industry to protect and promote the interests of public art museums and exhibition spaces throughout Queensland.

RGAQ offers professional development funding opportunities for member galleries and their staff and volunteers through its Professional Development funding program.

RGAQ holds elections to its board of management every two years. Representatives of member galleries are eligible to nominate for election (must be current financial members). The next election year is 2018.

RGAQ, together with Museums Australia Queensland, established Museum and Gallery Services Queensland, a peak industry body to deliver services and programs to the sector.
